NEARING THE END.

Kaufmann Case Will Soon Go to the Jury.

Flaudreau, S. D., June 19.—The summing up arguments in the Kaufmann murder case had not been concluded when court adjourned Tuesday. George Rice of counsel for the defense, who followed State's Attorney Orr of Minnehaha county and State's Attorney Blewitt of Moody county, had not concluded when court adjourned for the day. It is understood he will be followed by Judge Frank R. Aikens for the defense and that George B. Egan will then make the closing argument for the state. It is thought the case will soon go to the jury.

IMPORTANT EVIDENCE

Offered by the Prosecution in the Haywood Case.

FOUR LETTERS ADMITTED

Tending to Show Haywood Participated in a Plan to Deceive Mrs. Harry Orchard—Believed Jack Simpkins Is Dead.

Boise, Ida., June 19.—The prosecution in the Steunenberg murder trial offered one of its most important pieces of evidence against William D. Haywood when, recalling Orchard for re-direct examination, it introduced and secured the admission of four letters tending to show that Haywood during the fall of 1905, when Orchard swears he was engaged on various crimes for the federation's leaders, had participated in a plan to deceive Mrs. Orchard, the second, of Cripple Creek as to the whereabouts of her husband.

Over a variety of protests from the defense Orchard was allowed to testify that early in the summer of 1905 Haywood told him that Mrs. Orchard was writing him for information as to Orchard's whereabouts. Orchard swore that he proposed that he should write his wife a series of letters that were to be falsely dated and delivered to Mrs. Orchard by agents of the federation.

He said that he first wrote two letters which he dated at San Francisco and had them delivered through Paddy Mullaney, who represented the federation at Cripple Creek. Orchard identified the two letters and, overruling all objections of the defense, Judge Wood admitted them.

Next Orchard swore that he wrote a third letter purporting to come from Nome, Alaska, and that under the general arrangement he had made with the federation officials, Marian Moore carried the letter to Nome, where he went as organizer of the federation, and posted it.

Admitted as Evidence.

This letter bearing the date of Nome, Aug. 5, 1905, was produced, identified and admitted as evidence.

Orchard then identified a letter which Haywood wrote to Mrs. Orchard and that too, was admitted in evidence and handed to the jury. It was dated Denver, Nov. 18, 1905, and is as follows:

"I have not heard a word since I saw you. The last information I got was from Alaska. I think Fairfield was the name of the place. I see that awful conditions prevail among the law and order element."

The three letters written by Orchard were commonplace and contained practically nothing bearing on the case or Orchard's testimony except references to the arrangement which Orchard says he made with the federation officials for the care of his wife while he was absent.

The defense attacked the letters and Orchard's story about them when it got a chance to cross-examine the witness, but Orchard held to the story about them. The witness successively denied that he had made an arrangement for the delivery of the letters to Pinkerton agents; that the letters had made their appearance since he left the stand last week or that he had invented the story because his wife had Haywood's letter in her possession.

He swore positively that Haywood had agreed to write the letter and that Pettibone and Moyer knew of the arrangement. It was a day of correspondence and documentary evidence.

Unsigned Letter Admitted.

Besides the four San Francisco-Alaska letters the state secured an admission of a certified copy of an unsigned letter, which Orchard got at Caldwell jail and which Orchard swears was in the handwriting of Pettibone. The letter, dated Dec. 30, follows:

"Friend Tom:—Your letter received. That was sent to Jack Dec. 21 for you. He should send it so that you ought to have it by this time. Will not write any more this time. Write me as soon as you get to your new field."

The letter was postmarked at Denver on Dec. 30, the day that Steunenberg was killed, and it is claimed by the state that the "Jack" mentioned was Simpkins and that the "that" referred to was $100 which Orchard swore he asked Simpkins to secure for him when he was leaving Caldwell.

The state developed its contention that as tending to show a conspiracy and knowledge of the Steunenberg crime Orchard was, without any request from him, furnished with counsel within a few days after his arrest. It first showed that Orchard after his arrest sent no communication from the Caldwell jail, and then produced and secured the admission of the original of a telegram filed at Spokane, Wash., on Jan. 31, 1906, and sent to T. Hogan, care of the sheriff at Caldwell, Ida., stating that Attorney Fred Miller would start for Caldwell in the morning.

The telegram was signed by "M." 59 Hyde Block," and was charged to Robertson, Miller & Rosenfeldt of Spokane.

The defense examined Orchard on this subject and largely devoted itself to showing that the Western Federation of Miners always provided counsel for its members wherever and whenever they got into trouble.

To combat the theory that Orchard killed Steunenberg in revenge for his loss of a valuable interest in the Hercules mine the state on redirect examination obtained from Orchard a declaration that he sold his interest in the Hercules in 1897, two years before the strike and troops came. The defense attempted to modify this by getting the witness to admit that he had not sold his interest in the Hercules, but had pledged it and could have taken it back any time up to his flight from North Idaho before the oncoming troops, but Orchard adhered to the statement that he had sold outright.

There was a long contest over an unsuccessful effort by the state to show that the confession of Steve Adams had been voluntary. It maintained that Adams had once discussed the matter freely with Attorneys Hawley and Borah, but that was about as far as it got, the court sustaining a series of objections from the defense.

At the opening of the morning session the defense asked Orchard a series of impeaching questions. They all dealt with conversations in which it was alleged Orchard recited his private grudge against Frank Steunenberg and vowed that he would kill him if he hanged for it.

Orchard denied every query both specifically and generally.

Ed Boyce, once president of the Western Federation of Miners and now one of the owners of the rich Hercules mine, came after Orchard and was still on the stand when the court adjourned for the day.

SIMPKINS MAY BE DEAD.

Believed His Corpse Has Been Found in Colorado.

Fort Collins, Colo., June 19.—Coroner H. M. Halliwell and Deputy Sheriff Irving Lowry, who have returned from the Baldwin ranch in North Park, express the opinion that the corpse of a stranger found dead there recently is that of Jack Simpkins, who has been implicated in the assassination of Governor Steunenberg in the confession of Harry Orchard. Halliwell says that the description of the dead man and that of Simpkins as sent out by the Pinkerton detective agency almost exactly tally.

NEILL IN NEW YORK.

Inquiring Into Trouble Between Telegraphers and Employers.

New York, June 19.—Though United States Labor Commissioner Charles P. Neill spent Tuesday in this city, so far as could be learned nothing definite bearing upon the differences between the Commercial Telegraphers' union and their employers has yet developed as a result of his visit. It is understood that Mr. Neill is looking into the merits of the demands made by the men and also considering the same from the viewpoint of the telegraph companies. It is thought likely that the commissioner will make some expression on the dispute to the president at Oyster Bay.

Officials of the union announced that a formal statement would soon be issued. President Small of the union is out of town. Acting President Koenekamp said that he had received no communication from Commissioner Neill.

Mr. Neill, it was said, had been unable to conclude his inquiry as soon as he had expected and so abandoned his earlier plan to return to Washington. He declined to discuss the day's developments.

"I am not in a position," he said, "to say anything at present, except that I have started an investigation of the controversy between the Western Union company and the Commercial Telegraphers' Union of America."

SIX MORE BODIES FOUND

Only One Now Missing From Naval Launch Disaster.

Newport News, Va., June 19.—The waters of Hampton Roads have given up the bodies of six more victims of the Minnesota's launch disaster, three dead midshipmen and two bluejackets being picked up about a mile off Fort Wool (Rip Rap) and within half a mile of where the launch was sunk. There is now only one body missing, that of a man named Murphy.

The corpses were those of Midshipmen Walter Carl Ulrich and Herbert Leander Holden, Ordinary Seamen H. L. Van Dern, Coal Passer Jesse Conn, Coxswain R. H. Dodson of New York, and Ordinary Seaman F. R. Plumber.

Favors Uniform Divorce Law.

Madison, Wis., June 19.—The senate by a vote of 15 to 10 passed a bill favoring the uniform divorce law as agreed upon at the Philadelphia convention. A bill for a referendum on the question of woman suffrage was ordered to engrossment. A bill providing for the establishment of a twine plant at the state penitentiary passed the assembly.

The telegram was signed by "M." 59 Hyde Block," and was charged to

ACTED NONE TOO SOON

French Government Gets After the Revolutionaries.

THE SITUATION WAS SERIOUS

Revolted Villagers Placed Dynamite on Railroad Tracks, Cut Telegraph Wires and Built Barricades to Resist the Troops.

Paris, June 19.—The government appears to have acted none too soon in determining to set the law in motion against the revolutionaries in the south of France. The prefects report the commencement of efforts to raise the populace and three departments, the Aude, Herault and Pyrenees-Orientales, are apparently nearing a stage when aggressiveness will replace the passivity which heretofore has marked the movements.

Advices from Narbonne, department of the Aude, show that the situation there has become worse. Dynamite has been discovered on the railroads, in some cases the tracks have been removed, the telegraph wires have been cut with the object of impeding the arrival of troops and the revolted villagers have been pulling up the pavements and collecting materials for barricades.

The situation is full of menace. Practically the whole population of Narbonne is in the streets and the wildest excitement prevails. The slightest untoward incident is likely to precipitate fighting and the sacking of the government buildings.

In view of the incendiary threats of the population the general staff of the Sixteenth army corps held a midnight conference at Montpellier and all the plans were made to meet eventualities.

Led to a Lively Debate.

The action of the government led to a lively debate in the chamber of deputies. Premier Clemenceau refused to agree to the immediate discussion of an interpellation on the subject of the government's plan and demanded its postponement to June 21. He declared that all means of conciliation had now been exhausted and that as chief of the government he was bound to enforce respect for the law. The wine growers' committee of Argeliers had set up itself in place of the central government and three departments had engaged in a revolt against the country's law and were threatening to burn out and otherwise terrorizing mayors and others who refused allegiance to the committee. Summons had been issued for those responsible for this state of affairs. If the chamber defeated the postponement of the interpellation he would immediately countermand the prosecutions and the chamber would be held responsible for the grave consequences. It was his desire to avoid the threatened bloody conflict.

After heated remarks from M. Jaures, the Socialist leader, who declared the government had brought the country to the verge of civil war, MM. Sarraut and Ribot came to the support of the cabinet, the latter saying that the situation was the worst in thirty-seven years.

The government's motion finally was adopted by 412 to 158.

CONVICTED OF MURDER.

"King of Mulberry Street" Will Be Sentenced to Death.

New York, June 19.—Angelo Landero, "the king of Mulberry Street" was convicted of murder in the first degree and sentence of death will be pronounced Friday. At the same time a like sentence will be imposed upon Salvatore Governale, who killed two policemen last April.

The murder for which Landero was convicted was that of Don Michele D'Ambrio, a well-to-do contractor of Bedford Park. There had been a quarrel over a game of tocke, a finger matching pastime, and revolvers were drawn. They were separated but a year later Landero killed the contractor.

MUTINY OF SAPPERS.

Company Commander Killed, But Mutineers Are Defeated.

Kiev, June 19.—During Tuesday night the Twenty-first battalion of sappers, 450 strong, mutinied. They killed the commander of the Third company and began firing volleys at random. Five loyal battalions were summoned to quell the mutiny and called upon the mutineers to surrender. They replied with shots, however, wounding four of the loyal soldiers. Loyal battalions fired a volley and the mutineers broke and fled. Two hundred and fifty-eight of them were arrested, but the others escaped.

Minnesota Boy Drowned.

Paynesville, Minn., June 19.—Edward Braden, the eight-year-old son of Mrs. Mary Braden of this village, was drowned in the Crow river near this place while wading with two companions younger than himself.

When one gets a genuine article in an oriental rug, he is getting something which holds its value—it is not only a handsome addition to the home—but is something he will always be satisfied with. The best collection of oriental rugs that was ever brought to this city is now on exhibition at Patek's Furniture Store, by Dap Hapi, by whom they were imported direct to this country. It would be hard to give a good description of these rugs. The patterns and colorings are beautiful—having that finish and luster which characterize only the genuine article. In the collection, which is an exceedingly large one, it is an easy task to select just the one you want, as the assortment of sizes is very complete. It is no exaggeration to say that nowhere, even in the large cities, can so rich and beautiful an assortment of rugs be found as is here shown. We are pleased to have you come in and inspect our goods. They will tell the story themselves.

New York Man Shot His Wife, Not Knowing She Was Dead.

New York, June 19.—Under pressure of a merciless examination, James Wardell confessed to Coroner Acertelli and Assistant District Attorney Manley that in furtherance of a suicide pact he shot his wife at her flat in west Twenty-fifth street, Monday. At the time of his confession Wardell did not know that an autopsy had disclosed that his wife was dead when he fired a bullet into her brain. Inhaling illuminating gas had caused her death.

Wardell's admission has added something unusual if not unprecedented to the annals of crime in this city. Just what charge will be based upon his acknowledgment of an intent to kill, the coroner has not made known.

Mrs. Wardell, who was nineteen years of age and strikingly attractive, was found dead in bed Monday night. Wardell was arrested and told the police his wife had shot herself after the two agreed to die together. His courage failed him when the time came for self-destruction.

MUSIC AND DRAMA

Dockstader's Minstrels Coming

The good ship Dockstader, loaded to the gunwales with minstrel novelties, has sailed from the port of New York, and will arrive in Brainerd on Friday, July 5, when the cargo will be unloaded and the big show will be set up at the opera house.

Mr. Dockstader this year has fairly outdone himself in the matter of novelties. Lew Dockstader's name has always been the synonym for a performance full of surprises, but this season he provides an entertainment so refreshing in its newness as to call forth the praise of critics everywhere.

LEW DOCKSTADER

The minstrel king has been working for years on a scene to be used as a first part setting. Artisans in hundreds of cities have experimented on the practicability of Mr. Dockstader's idea, which is, briefly, a stage replete with jewels and known as the "palace of emeralds." After several years' work and experiments the object has been accomplished, and when the curtain rises on this scene the people of Brainerd will witness the most gorgeous setting ever seen in minstrelsy. All songs and quips for which the minstrels are famous, are absolutely new. The dancing numbers of the show are a feature said to be far above the average, and are under the direction of Tommy Hyde. Neil O'Brien whose portrayal of the stupid darkey has made the whole country laugh, is again one of the big features of the performance. Mr. O'Brien will present an improved version of his street car act of two seasons ago, entitled "Rapid Transit No. 2." The finale of the show is a picturesque southern scene showing the swamps of Louisiana when the magnolia trees are in full bloom. This is a moonlight scene in which a stage effect never before presented is introduced.

Mr. Dockstader himself has a specialty of which newness is the keystone. He will be seen as the editor of "Bungtown Corker," and will depict the trying circumstances of an editor's life. His arrival at the sanctum and his departure, form the basis for one of the most interesting acts the fertile mind of the minstrel man has ever devised.

Will Cure Consumption

A. A. Herren, Finch, Ark., writes: "Foley's Honey and Tar is the best preparation for coughs, colds and lung trouble. I know that it has cured consumption in the first stages." You never heard of any one using Foley's Honey and Tar and not being satisfied. H. P. Dunn & Co. mwfdw

AT SACAGORE HILL.

President Roosevelt and Family at Their Summer Home.

Oyster Bay, N. Y., June 13.—President Roosevelt and his family are now at Sagamore Hill. The trip from Washington, which was begun in a drizzling rain, ended in sunshine. At Jersey City and Long Island City crowds surrounded his car, shouting greetings to the president, and when the train drew in here the station platform was thronged with neighbors.

After the president had embraced Archie and Quentin, who sprang into his arms in the car door, his next words were to his neighbors, who crowded about him.

"Well, I am glad to be here," was his exclamation. He stepped at once to the platform. As usual, the reception committee was headed by Former Sheriff Johnson and Editor Cheney. But the youngsters of the town had formed reception plans of their own, and as they pressed around in scores the president gave them his immediate attention. Grasping one diminutive hand after another, the president said:

"There is certainly no evidence of race suicide in Oyster Bay."

After the president and Mrs. Roosevelt had shaken hands with everybody, the family was driven to Sagamore Hill.

The only official announcement of the day is that the president has come to Oyster Bay to spend the three and a half months of his vacation in quiet and rest as near as may be. The president will not be accessible to callers who have not previously made appointments.

TRIBUTES TO MISS LEWIS
 Hudson Star-Times and Prof. J. C. Mc-Neill of Superior Eulogize Late
 Brainerd Teacher
 THE DISPATCH is in receipt of a copy of the Hudson (Wis.) Star-Times containing the following tribute to the late Miss Elizabeth Lewis:
 The funeral of Miss Elizabeth J.
 Lewis, of the town of St. Joseph, was held from the Catholic church in this city Friday, May 24th. It was well attended, being one of the largest witnessed in this locality. The large gathering of friends and the many beautiful floral tributes showed the esteem in which Miss Lewis was held where she lived.
 She was born in St. Joseph and always lived there except when away at school or teaching.
 Her home rule was a model, always busy, and seeing where she could be the most useful, with a smile for those who were sad, a cheerful word for those discouraged and a little tender care for those who were sick, never thinking of herself.
 She leaves a mother, three sisters and two brothers to mourn her loss. Her death has cast a pall of sadness over the whole neighborhood. A teacher in Brainerd writing of her to the bereaved family said, "We used to all gather around Miss Lewis in her room before school to get a cheerful word."
 This paper has also received the following letter to her mother written by President I. C. McNeill, of the Superior Normal school, of which she was a graduate:
 DEAR MRS. LEWIS:—I have just learned of the earthly departure of your daughter, my dear friend Elizabeth.
 You know that she was much appreciated by all who knew her in Superior.
 I knew her better than most other people, and more intimately, in some respects, than the other teachers in the Normal school. She was near and dear to me and I loved her because of her true worth, her christian spirit, her loyalty, fidelity, energy and good cheer.
 I mourn with you over her earthly departure; your tears mingle with mine.
 While Elizabeth has passed from us,
 and we shall not feel the force of her love and confidence, it is well that we can recall her graces of character and beautiful personality with so much pleasure. Sometime in the hereafter we shall meet her and then when pain and separation do not operate any more we shall enjoy her throughout all the ages of eternity.
 Sincerely your friend,
 I. C. McNEILL,
 President Superior Normal.

WAS LOVER MURDERER?
 Strange Story of Finding Fatal
 Clue to Murderer of Miss
 Annie Kinttop
IT WAS A PECULIAR CASE Lover was Most Energetic in the Search for Supposed Murderers at Time of Crime
 The Long Prairie Leader contains a strange story regarding the identity of the murderer of Annie Kinttop whose tragic death near Darling two years ago
 created so much excitement, and to hunt down those alleged slayers a bunch of Brainerd business men took a long drive.
 That truth is stranger than fiction is well illustrated by the developments in a Morrison county murder case. It will be remembered by our readers that about a couple of years ago, a young woman was killed near Randall in a particularly horrible and brutal manner. She had been employed as a servant in Little Falls and had taken the train home for a short visit. While passing from the station along the road
 to her home she was attacked and murdered. In the struggle, which must have been a terrible one, judging from the condition of the ground where the body was found, the unfortunate woman had stabbed her assailant with a hat pin which had been broken in the encounter. Not a sign or clue to the murderer was left and during all the months since the deed was committed not the slightest evidence leading to the probable guilt of any one has been found. It was thought for a time that two negroes who were seen about the place had murdered the girl and the authorities spent months in looking them up. Suspicious characters were traced as far as the Pacific coast but to no avail. The case had been given up and the matter was being forgotten.
 At the time of the murder the young woman had a lover and the two were seen together shortly before the murder. The young man was most strenuous in his efforts to locate the guilty parties and had accompanied the sheriff
 west to identify a couple of suspects.
 No one was more solicitous for the running down of the culprits than was he.
 Two weeks ago he was taken with an attack of appendicitis. He was removed to a hospital at Little Falls and operated on. While digging around in his abdomen the physicians found—the broken
 end of a woman's hat pin.
 The unfortunate young man is still at the hospital recovering from the effects of the operation. His arrest by the sheriff as he leaves his cot will be the first intimation he will have of the discovery of the broken pin.
 Chas. Coenen, whose son married a sister of the murdered girl, was seen by a DISPATCH representative today in regard to the matter. He stated that while he had heard nothing definite regarding the finding of the hat pin he had heard that there were new developments in the case. He states that his son's wife at the time expressed suspicion of this party but the matter was thought absurd, as he expressed the greatest grief over her death, according to Mr. Coenen, and was a pall bearer at the funeral.

A Lesson in Health
 Healthy kidneys filter the impurities from the blood, and unless they do this good health is impossible. Foley's Kidney Cure makes sound kidneys and will positively cure all forms of kidney and bladder disease. It strengthens the whole system. H. P. Dunn & Co. mwf

SUCCEEDS MAJOR DERBY
 Capt. E. H. Schultz, of the Engineer
 Corps, U. S. A. in City Today
 on Business
 Capt. E. H. Schultz, of the engineer corps of the United States army, who succeeds Lieut. Col. Geo. McC. Derby
 as engineer in charge of the government dams in Minnesota, was in the city today, on his way from the Pine river dam to the Sandy lake dam. This is Capt. Schultz's first visit to the dams under his jurisdiction and he expresses himself as well satisfied as to the conditions he finds. Capt. Schultz also has charge of the Missouri river improvements at Sioux City, Iowa. He is recently from Guantanamo, Cuba, where he has been in charge of work on the fortifications of the U. S. naval station.
 He says the climate is not so bad and the people are all right as long as Uncle Sam sits on the lid, but they do not seem to be able to learn to abide by the results of an election but want to oust the other fellow by means of a revolution.

PUBLIC LANDS CONVENTION
 Addressed by Secretary of the Interior
 Garfield.
 Denver, June 19.—The public lands convention, which is holding a three days' session in this city, listened to addresses by James R. Garfield, secretary of the Interior; Richard A. Gallin-ger, commissioner of the general land office, and Henry M. Teller, former United States senator from Colorado.
 Permanent organization was effected by the selection of Dr. J. M. Wilson of Wyoming as chairman and Fred P.
 Johnson of Colorado as secretary. The reports of the committees on credentials and organization, rules and order were made and a committee on resolutions was appointed.
 Secretary Garfield urged the convention in its discussion of the present land laws, a criticism of which he said had been the cause of the calling together of the convention, to confine its discussion to the effect of these laws on the entire country and not on any particular section of the country.
 The public lands, he said, were not an asset of any locality. They belong to the people of the entire nation.
 He said he wanted to get the point of view of the people of the West and he wanted them to get his point of view.
 He welcomed criticism which was constructive, but he thought that criticism which was merely an attack
 without a suggestion for improvement
 was worthless.

REBUKES THE BOARD

Mayer Schmitz Sends a Letter to the Supervisors.

MESSAGE GIVES WARNING

Declares Any Recognition of James L. Gallagher as Acting Mayor Will Result in Trouble for the City—Plans of Prosecution Not Perfected.

San Francisco, June 19.—Supervisor James L. Gallagher, who was appointed by the board of supervisors acting mayor in place of Mayor Schmitz, who is confined in the county jail awaiting sentence for the crime of extortion, will be by the bribery graft prosecution retained in that office until Mr. Schmitz has perfected his appeal from last week's conviction. This statement was made by District Attorney Langdon. He said:

"The members of the prosecution have not even discussed with each other the name of any man to succeed Gallagher as emergency mayor for the remainder of the year. We have not gone that far yet. We are proceeding carefully and with due regard to the seriousness of the situation. I am not ready yet to answer with a detailed plan the question: 'Will we sweep out of office the entire Schmitz administration?' but I will say this: We have shaped up and are now filling in the body of a policy whose one and only object is prompt and effectual relief for the public, and we shall permit nothing to interfere with the carrying forward of that policy. We do not fear any counter moves by the mayor's counsel. We are fully advised of the law and have entire confidence in the legality of the step we have already caused to be taken—the appointment of an acting mayor—and the legality of the further steps we propose taking when Mr. Schmitz has perfected his appeal."

Mayor Schmitz at the close of a long conference with his attorneys addressed to the board of supervisors a letter rebuking that body for its action in ousting him. In this letter he declared himself able and willing to perform the duties of the mayorality, commanded the body to forward to him all matters requiring review by the mayor and warned the body that any recognition of Gallagher as acting mayor will result in trouble for the city.

Supervisor Gallagher has made no attempt to take possession of the mayor's office at Post and Franklin streets.

A man who is in perfect health, who can do an honest day's work when necessary, has much for which he should be thankful. Mr. L. C. Rodgers, of Branchton, Pa., writes that he was not only unable to work, but he couldn't stoop over to tie his own shoes. Six bottles of Foley's Kidney Cure made a new man of him. He says, "Success to Foley's Kidney Cure." H. P. Dunn & Co. mwfdw

FALLS FROM AN AUTO.

St. Paul Man Killed While Riding With J. J. Hill's Son.

St. Paul, June 19.—Fred Schroeder, the liveryman, St. Peter and Fourth streets, was instantly killed by being thrown from the automobile of Walter J. Hill, son of James J. Hill, near Syndicate and Summit avenues. His skull was fractured. Coroner A. W. Miller was called immediately and after an examination the body was taken to the undertaking rooms of J. Willerscheid.

It is thought Mr. Schroeder was stricken with apoplexy and fell from the auto, which was going at a high rate of speed.

Cured Hemorrhages of the Lungs

"Several years since my lungs were so badly affected that I had many hemorrhages," writes A. M. Ake, of Wood, Ind. "I took treatment with several physicians without any benefit. I then started to take Foley's Honey and Tar, and my lungs are now as sound as a bell. I recommend it in advanced stages of lung trouble." Foley's Honey and Tar stops the cough and heals the lungs, and prevents serious results from a cold. Refuse substitutes. H. P. Dunn & Co. mwfdw

SEVEN MEN KILLED.

Two Others Seriously Injured by Explosions in a Mine.

Seranton, Pa., June 19.—Seven men were killed outright and two others were seriously injured in two explosions of mine gas in the Johnson No. 1 mine at Priceburg. The first explosion was caused by the carelessness of a doortender, who by leaving the door open allowed gas to accumulate in the workings. One man was injured as a result of this explosion. The second explosion, which resulted in the death of seven men and the injury of another, resulted from the ignition of the deadly fire damp which accumulated after the first explosion.

AGAINST A VERMONT ROAD

Federal Grand Jury at New York Returns Indictments.

New York, June 19.—Indictments for alleged violations of the Elkins anti-rebating law were returned by a United States grand jury against the Central Vermont Railway company. The favored shipper is the same one that has figured in other recent cases here, the Woolson Spice company of Toledo, on coffee shipments between this city and Toledo. The allegation is that the Central Vermont granted the Woolson people a rebate of 1 cent per 100 pounds from the tariff rate of 20 cents on their shipments. The shipments were made in carload lots in the summer of 1904 and there are seven counts, each on the shipment of a car of about 25,000 pounds.

The Central Vermont operates a line of boats to New London, Conn., and thence by rail to a connection with the Grand Trunk railway, this forming one of the routes of the Merchants' Despatch Fast Freight line.

Immediately after the finding of the indictments the United States attorney notified the corporation's attorneys and they will appear for formal pleading within a few days.

SIX PERSONS INJURED.

Serious Accident to a Party of Tourists in Colorado.

Canyon City, Colo., June 19.—Six persons were injured, three of them seriously, while on a sightseeing trip in Royal Gorge Park near this city, being thrown from a vehicle after the driver had lost control of the machine. The seriously injured are:

J. B. Morgan, Franklin, Neb., right thigh broken, badly bruised, may not recover; Mrs. J. B. Morgan, two ribs broken, severe bruises, possibly internal injuries; Miss Emma Smith, right ankle bruised and shoulder dislocated.

Hail Storm in Wisconsin. Janesville, Wis., June 19.—Intense heat that caused two prostrations was broken by a severe hail storm, which did much damage to beets and tobacco.

Omaha, June 19.—Because of delays north of Chadron, Neb., the result of heavy rains, Secretary of War William H. Taft and party reached this city three hours behind the scheduled time. The secretary was the guest of Victor Rosewater at dinner at the Omaha club. The secretary was then escorted to the new Y. M. C. A. building, where a public reception was held and where he made a brief address. Secretary Taft later left for Fort Leavenworth, Kan.

HITS TELEGRAPH POLE.

Two Men Killed and Another Injured in an Auto Accident.

Cincinnati, June 19.—Thomas Trever, superintendent of the H. and S. Pogue company, and Alfred Trever of the same company were killed in an automobile accident here. The chauffeur, name unknown, is seriously injured and may die.

The accident resulted from trying to avoid running down a colored man and the car was dashed into a telegraph pole.

STABBED BY A GIRL.

Young New York Man May Die of His Wound.

New York June 19.—Enraged because some roughish school boys had tumbled her over while playing a street piano in the lower West Side, Philomena Castro, a young Syrian girl, drew a stiletto and fatally stabbed Charles McCarthy, a young man, in the breast. McCarthy will probably die. The girl was arrested with her companion, Theresa Christopher, who is held as a witness.

WEAK, WEARY WOMEN

Learn the Cause of Daily Woes and End Them

When the back aches and throbs. When housework is torture. When night brings no rest nor sleep. When urinary disorders set in. Women's lot is a weary one. There is a way to escape these woes. Doan's Kidney Pills cure such ill. Have cured women here in Brainerd. This is one Brainerd woman's testimony.

Mrs. John C. Beck, of 615 Maple St., Brainerd, Minn., says: "The merits of Doan's Kidney Pills are second to no other kidney medicine. Mr. Beck suffered with his back and kidneys for a long time. There were continual pains and an annoyance from a disturbed condition of the kidneys. He tried one treatment after another but always without noticeable benefit. Doan's Kidney Pills were so highly recommended that he decided to try them and procured a box at H. P. Dunn & Co.'s drug store. It proved just the remedy he needed, for the benefit was prompt and effective from the first dose and a continued use of Doan's Kidney Pills entirely eradicated the whole trouble."

CHILD CONVICTED.

Nine-Year-Old Boy Found Guilty of Manslaughter.

Baltimore, June 19.—The youngest murderer in the history of local criminal courts was tried and convicted of manslaughter. He is Sidney Hollis, colored, nine years old. He shot and killed William H. Griffiths, another negro lad of eleven years, on June 1 after a quarrel over a game of marbles. Hollis did not display the slightest concern in the courtroom during the trial. He fell asleep several times in the course of the proceedings. Sentence was suspended.

Monotony Leads To Insanity

Too much excitement—too much monotony. Both these extremes are fatal to the nervous system.

Diseases of the nerves often result from the excessive mental work and worry and the strife and turmoil of city life.

But what leads to the paralysis, the locomotor ataxia and the insanity which comes frequently to the farmer or his wife living in rural sections, or to persons who work with machinery? It is the monotony.

Whatever your circumstances, it is wise to be alert for symptoms which denote exhausted nerves, headache and indigestion, irritability of temper and weakness of body and mind, and to begin at once the use of Dr. A. W. Chase's Nerve Pills.

Science has no more effective treatment to offer as a means of restoring vigor and vitality to a wasted, nervous system than Dr. A. W. Chase's Nerve Pills; 50 cents a box, 6 boxes for $2.50, at all dealers, or Dr. A. W. Chase Med. Co., Buffalo, N. Y. The portrait and signature of Dr. A. W. Chase, the famous receipt-book author, are on every box.

EMPRESS EUGENIE.

Her Dramatic Descent Upon the Cabinet Council.

In Frederic Lollée's "Women of the Second Empire" the author tells a sensational story of Empress Eugenie of France. It concerns a pressing political matter, one of church and state. Because the empress felt strongly on it the emperor feared lest she should endeavor to influence the deliberations of the cabinet council by appearing in person. Accordingly he gave orders that the meeting should be kept secret from her. M. Lollée says: "But the matter so carefully concealed was already known to her, and, acting on the first impulse of her fiery Spanish temperament, boiling over with anger, she flew rather than walked to the council chamber. A sentry had been placed at the door with orders to allow no one to pass. He opposed the entrance of the impetuous sovereign."

"I wish to enter. Stand back!" she cried angrily. Finding himself in a horrible quandary between the orders he had received and his fear of hurting the empress, the guardsman, between his gallantry to her sex and his fidelity to the word of command, fell at the feet of Eugenie with his bayonet laid across the doorway.

"Your majesty," he said, "no one may pass, by order of the emperor."

"We shall see," replied Eugenie, and without more ado she leaped over the sentry's bayonet, burst open the door and entered the council chamber with the violence of a whirlwind. The emperor was presiding, grave and imperious, he alone having his head covered in the presence of his respectful and attentive ministers.

"But the sovereign failed to impose respect on his angry wife, who saw in him only the man and the husband. Going straight up to him, with a backhanded blow she knocked off his hat, then, without a word, withdrew as she had entered, leaving the ministers dumb with surprise and consternation."

SILVER WEDDINGS.

They Had Their Origin In the Reign of Hugues Capet.

The fashion of silver weddings dates back to the reign of Hugues Capet, king of France in 987.

Once as Hugues was arranging his uncle's affairs he found on one of the estates a servant who had grown gray in the service of his relative. He had been such a friend of his master that he was almost looked upon as one of the family.

On the farm with this old man was also a serving woman who was as old as he and also unmarried and who had been the most devoted and hardworking of the women servants of the king's uncle. When the king heard these praises of the two, he ordered them to be brought before him and said to the woman:

"Your service is great, greater than this man's, whose services were great enough, for the woman always finds work and obedience harder than a man, and therefore I will give you a reward. At your age I know of none better than a dowry and a husband. The dowry is here—this farm from this time forth belongs to you. If this man who has worked with you five and twenty years is willing to marry you, then the husband is ready."

"Your majesty," stammered the old peasant confusedly, "how is it possible that we should marry, having already silver hairs?"

"Then it shall be a silver wedding," answered the king, "and here I give you a wedding ring," drawing a costly ring from his finger and placing the hands of the thankful old people together.

This soon became known all over France and raised such enthusiasm that it became a fashion after a twenty-five years' marriage to celebrate a silver wedding.
